Unifying the Interests of Southern Illinois

The Southern Illinois Mayors Association provides a means for municipalities in the South-ern Illinois area to cooperate in matters of mutual concern. Established in 1975, mayors from several municipalities came together to discuss common concerns.

Membership has steadily risen to more than 100 municipalities. From the beginning, SIMA has emphasized the theme of cooperation among area communities in solving common problems and in voicing concerns in the state capitol. SIMA also has a working relationship with the Illinois Municipal League (IML).
